Whitebridge was a small village, and old people often came and lived there. Some of them had a lot of old furniture, and they often did not want some of it, because they were in a smaller house now.

So, every Saturday morning they put it out, and other people came and looked at it, and sometimes they took it away because they wanted it.

Why did old people in Whitebridge often sell their old furniture?

They sold their furniture because they were in a smaller house now.

Every Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Morton put a very ugly old bear's head out at the side of their gate, but nobody wanted it. Then last Saturday, they wrote, 'I'm very lonely here. Please take me,' on a piece of paper and put it near the bear's head.

What did Mr. and Mrs. Morton put out every Saturday?

They put a very ugly old bear's head out.

What did they write on a piece of paper?

They wrote, 'I'm very lonely here. Please take me.'

They went to the town, and came home in the evening. There were now two bears' heads in front of their house, and there was another piece of paper. It said, 'I was lonely too.'
