Was Carol old or young?

She was young.

Where did she work?

She worked in an office

Did she like boys?

No, she did not like any boys.

Then she met a very nice young man. His name was George Watts, and he worked in a bank near her office. They went out together quite a lot, and he came to Carol's parents' house twice.

Who did she meet then?

She met a very nice young man.

Last week Carol went to her father and said, 'I'm going to marry George Watts daddy. He was here yesterday.'

'Oh, yes,' her father said. 'He's a nice boy, but has he got any money?'

What did Carol say to her father?

She said 'I'm going to marry George Watts.'

What did her father ask her?

He asked her 'has he got any money?'

‘Oh men! All of you are the same,’ the daughter answered angrily. ‘I met George on the first of June and on the second he said to me, “has your father got any money?” ’

'Oh men! All of you are the same,' the daughter answered angrily. 'I met George on the first of June and on the second he said to me, "has your father got any money?"' '
