

داستان کوتاه

+ فایل صوتی

درس پنزدهم

+ آموزش کلمات

و نکات گرامری

سطح B1

English Nerd Club

Mary's mother was nearly seventy, and Mary and her husband wanted to give the old lady a nice birthday present. She liked drinking tea, so Mary ordered an electric machine which made the tea and then woke you up in the morning.

Mary's mother was nearly seventy, and Mary and her husband wanted to give the old lady a nice birthday present. She liked drinking tea, so Mary ordered an electric machine which made the tea and then woke you up in the morning.

Mary's mother was nearly seventy, and Mary and her husband wanted to give the old lady a nice birthday present. She liked drinking tea, so Mary ordered an electric machine which made the tea and then woke you up in the morning.

give somebody something

give the old lady a nice birthday present

Bob gave me a nice watch for my birthday.

Mary's mother was nearly seventy, and Mary and her husband wanted to give the old lady a nice birthday present. She liked drinking tea, so Mary ordered an electric machine which made the tea and then woke you up in the morning.

How old was Mary's mother?

She was nearly seventy.

What did Mary and her husband buy her mother?

They bought her an electric machine.

Why did they choose this for her?

Because she liked drinking tea.

She wrapped it up in pretty paper and brought it to her mother on her birthday. Then her mother opened the package. Mary showed her how to use it.

She wrapped it up in pretty paper and brought it to her mother on her birthday. Then her mother opened the package. Mary showed her how to use it.

She wrapped it up in pretty paper and brought it to her mother on her birthday. Then her mother opened the package. Mary showed her how to use it.

how to do something

Mary showed her how to use it.

I don't know how to get to your house.

He showed me how to play.

‘Before you go to bed, put the tea in the pot and the water in the kettle,’ she explained to the old lady, ‘and don't forget to switch the electricity on. Then, when you wake up in the morning, your tea will be ready.’

‘Before you go to bed, put the tea in the pot and the water in the kettle,’ she explained to the old lady, ‘and don't forget to switch the electricity on. Then, when you wake up in the morning, your tea will be ready.’

‘Before you go to bed, put the tea in the pot and the water in the kettle,’ she explained to the old lady, ‘and don't forget to switch the electricity on. Then, when you wake up in the morning, your tea will be ready.’

After a few days, Mary's mother rang up and said, 'Perhaps I'm being rather silly, but there is one thing I'm confused about: why do I have to go to bed to make the tea?'

After a few days, Mary's mother rang up and said, 'Perhaps I'm being rather silly, but there is one thing I'm confused about: why do I have to go to bed to make the tea?'

After a few days, Mary's mother rang up and said, 'Perhaps I'm being rather silly, but there is one thing I'm confused about: why do I have to go to bed to make the tea?'

What happened when Mary bought her mother the present?

What did Mary tell her mother?

What did Mary's mother do a few days later?

What did she tell Mary on the telephone?

Review + audio

t.me/englishnerd\_ir

Mary's mother was nearly seventy, and Mary and her husband wanted to give the old lady a nice birthday present. She liked drinking tea, so Mary ordered an electric machine which made the tea and then woke you up in the morning.

She wrapped it up in pretty paper and brought it to her mother on her birthday. Then her mother opened the package. Mary showed her how to use it.

‘Before you go to bed, put the tea in the pot and the water in the kettle,’ she explained to the old lady, ‘and don't forget to switch the electricity on. Then, when you wake up in the morning, your tea will be ready.’

After a few days, Mary's mother rang up and said, 'Perhaps I'm being rather silly, but there is one thing I'm confused about: why do I have to go to bed to make the tea?'

